

Life Is a Symphony

Meet Etleva Hima-Buli... violinist and rising star

Born in Albania, Etleva got her Master's from Boston Conservatory. She now lives with her husband in Natick, MA, and got her coveted green card last summer.

Her heroes are people who stand up for themselves – like when she persuaded her father to pay her when she played for his friends!

Her ambitious professional career includes being a published author (European Violin Studies). Etleva dreams big, and the sky is not necessarily the limit: she'd love to have a solo violin role in a movie – or be the first violinist to play for people on Mars!

Little known fact: she was a math geek in school

Favorite way to spend an evening: smart conversation and good wine

Favorite movie: The Rhapsody

Onward and upward, Etleva!
