If you are hoping to audition for the Vermont Symphony Orchestra's section violin and/or assistant principal second violin vacancy, please print out the application form on this website and mail in with your resume (not necessary if you have already sent in) and a $25 deposit to hold your space. Due to time limitations, we may not be able to hear everyone who is interested in auditioning. Your resume should clearly reflect your professional orchestral experience.

If your application form and deposit check are not received in the office by March 25, we may not be able to include you in the audition; if not, you may be placed on a waiting list as appropriate.

At this point we are planning on hearing auditions from 9am to 5pm on Thursday, April 25, at the Elley-Long Center in Colchester, Vermont. If you are not selected to come to the audition, your deposit will be returned to you by mail; otherwise, you will get it back if and only if you actually take the audition. (You don't get it back even if you cancel ahead of time—this is our policy.)

You will be notified after March 25 whether you are invited to take the audition or not. If you have any questions, please feel free to email Eleanor Long, Personnel Manager, at eleanor@vso.org.

Thanks for your interest in the VSO!
